1. My days are short, my time is near to lay my
 (2. My) heart is calm, my soul at peace, my pain is
 (3. Through) all the toils and trials I've known and all the (4. And) though dear friends I leave behind as I pro-life's bur - dens down. The Lord gives strength to face my fear, the all left be - hind. I see a - head the Lord's own light so heart - aches I've seen, I've kept my bond with Thee in - tact with ceed on my way, I pray you, Lord, give grace and love, to strength that's found in His crown. He'd said if I would stand by that last path - way I'll find. He'd said if I would trust in none to come in be - tween. You've stayed by me through thick and ease and com - fort their day. How of - ten they would join in Him that I'd not walk on a - lone. And so I pray with my fin - al Him that I'd not be on my own. And may I stay still true to my thin, when e'er I wand - ered or roamed. So now I ask Thee one lit - le song, so proud and so lov - ing - ly. Now may they sing some chor - us we breath, oh, MAY I SING MY WAY HOME. 2. My HOME? Sing home, faith, oh, MAY I SING MY WAY HOME. 4. And me. Sing home, thing: oh, MAY I SING MY WAY HOME. 4. And me. Sing home, knew, oh, may they sing one for me. Sing home, — sing home. It's time that I sing my way home. And when at — sing home. It's time that we've sung our way home. And when at last the last verse has passed, oh, MAY I SING MY WAY HOME. 3. Through last the last verse has passed, oh, may we sing our way 4. And home.
