

Hello, Mom

Country Ballad

Fletcher Clark

4/12/14

1. HEL - LO, MOM. _____ It's been a - while since we talked., _____ I
 2. I miss you hold - in' me. _____ I don't 3.

guess I don't have to tell _____ you that _____ she walked a - way. _____ Lord, knows that I shamed have to ex - plain, it's all _____ too plain to see, _____ you see. _____ Turned her in - to some - _____ her with my self - ish, ly - in' ways, _____ and I guess I'll pay the pip - er for the

 - one who _____ showed me out the door. _____ Now I'm in this lone some flop _____ house just _____ rest of my days. _____ HEL - LO, MOM. _____ I wish that you were here with me. _____

 walk in' the floor. _____ I miss our laugh - in' shar - in' times.
 I'm still your lit - tle or - phan son. _____

_____ The com - fort of your laugh - ter set me free. _____
 _____ You smiled at all my sil - ly school - boy rhymes. _____
 _____ I hope that you don't think _____ your work's un - done. _____

With your sweet hand in mine, _____ I could face my _____ fear. HEL - LO, MOM,
 I wish that you could say _____ all I need to _____ hear.
 With you here sill in - side, _____ I will face my _____ fear.

_____ please wipe a - way this tear. HEL - LO, MOM, _____ I wish that you were here. 2. HEL LO, MOM. here.