

R & R

Jump Talkin' Blues

Fletcher Clark

4/14/14

When the sea of life get's a lit - tle rough and your Now R & R is that mag - ic time ver - when you I re - a - lize that it's not ly mind filled with all sorts of stuff that makes you want to up and fly a - way. leave all your wor - ries far be - hind and you wait for the noise a - round you to sub - hip to talk so mil - i - tar - i - ly and most of you prob - ab - ly fol - low - the peace - ful side. And you had your talk with ma - ter and pa - ter and your way. You set - tle back just to find some peace and you But can't you see when you lost your might that head feels like the rad - i - a - tor of a fif - ty six Ford on a hot West Tex - as please your neph - ew or you niece and gen - 'ral - ly close your eyes and o - pen on ly ad fool would stand and fight. A wise man lives to fight a - noth - er

Day. Then the pres - sure builds to a might - y force, and wide. So you o - pen wide and they stick it in. Now day. You just need time to let things set tle, so all your friends are get - tin' di - vorced, ex - cept for the few who've that bet ter be a real good friend, one for whom you light up a smoke and put on the ket - tle, then plop your - self in - to tried to end it all. And you see your san - i - ty start to slip and you have im - pli - cit trust. Just some - one to help with all the con - fu - sion a - some - one's ea - sy chair. Sip on a can of ice cold beer.

feel your mind just a - bout to flip, well, it's time to an - swer up to na - ture's bout the sil - ly neur - o - tic de - lu - sion that sud - den - ly you've lost your life to Sing you a song of hol - i - day cheer. It just might be e - nough to clear the call. You see, bears aren't dumb, they hi - ber - nate, and lust. Well, you fought the good fight and now you're done and the air. Yeah, I got trou - bles and so do you and yo - gis a - chieve a mys - tic state, and Sun - days all pile in to the fam' - ly bat - tle's o - ver and no one won, and now you know the blow of the winds of mo - thers and fa - thers and sis - ters, too, and ev - ry - bod - y's sink - in' in a storm - y car. Well, birds fly south to rest a bit and e - ven gen er - als war. Well, it's time to beat a neat - re - treat and to take a big load sea. So send up an S - O - S di - stress and hop on that R & us - ual - ly get a lit - tle time off for some R & R. off your feet. You need to get back and gen - 'ral - ly R & R.

 R ex - press. It - 'll take you back to where you need to be.