

Tea Party

Fletcher Clark

4/14/14

1. I'm head-ed to a TEA PAR-TY, no need to take my brain. My
2. Come with me to the TEA PAR-TY, no need to have a care 'bout spir - it's up, gon-na raise my cup while the coun-try goes down the drain. slops and spills or the un paid bills, with no wor - ries 'bout what seems fair. 3. Damned if I'll let poor folks' health de-4. Tramp - le on a wo - man's right of stoy the A - mer - i - can Dream. I'll pro - tect the bank - ers' wealth that choos - ing the use of her womb. Soon will be with - in our sight an feeds my po - lit - i - cal team. Like Al - i - ce's TEA PAR-TY, un - want-ed ba - by boom. My pa - tri - ot - ic TEA PAR-TY, no need of room for all. Strike up the band, as we quote Ayn Rand: "Let the no need to stop and think. Come join the fun, oh, and bring your gun, as we great - er de - feat the small."

tum - ble right - feat to the brink.

D.S. al Fine